Alira is a luxury apartment community located in Sacramento, CA. The low rise building has main floor direct access units as well as tuck under garages. The Craftsman-influenced elevations feature muted earth tones and brick accented by bracket detailing on covered balconies. Inside the units, 9- to 10-foot ceilings and high-end finishes create a stylish environment tenants appreciate. Community amenities include a salt water pool, community garden, fitness center, yoga studio, movie theatre and more.
