Cody Place is a modern community that fully embraces the stylish, upscale sensibility of its Palm Springs locale. These homes trend toward a 21st century iteration of modern design. Elegant horizontal lines, undulating facades, uniquely angled walls and touches of industrial flair define the streetscape and help create highly individual yet clearly cohesive attached homes that have captivated buyers. The community offers 102 luxury residential units, each with gracious outdoor living, including ground-level courtyards with splash pools, mews views and green space.
