The luxury modern farmhouse design of The Collet features an iconic elevation with open concept living to accentuate the surrounding mountainous views. To complete the authentic farmhouse look the home features stylistic shutters, Dutch doors, metal roofing and an amazing wrapped front porch.

Inside, floor-to-ceiling glass and multiple indoor/outdoor connections create a flow within the home. The centralized kitchen overlooks the great room and dining area and connects to a large walk-in pantry and morning kitchen. On the second floor, the loft space features homework stations and allows easy access to the secondary bedrooms.
